THE FIRST COMMANDMENT

Keep Hate Out Of War

Plea Of Christian Conference

War or not, a Christian must love all mankind and not hate, must trust that eventually all nations will learn to live together in a world of mutual cooperation, and never doubt or despair.

That was the final message brought to the all-day session of the United Christian Education Advance convention in Central Christian church by Dr. W. D. Howell, of Philadelphia, director of Christian education for the Presbyterian board.

More than 350 representatives of 42 denominations attended the conferences, which included a dinner program in First Baptist church. Within two weeks, similar conferences are to be held in all leading cities of the country, with the purpose of clarifying what it is that a Christian can hold to under present world conditions, and of bringing all denominations together in an effort to "bring the courage and guidance of spiritual help to the unchurched."

Cook Presides

The Rev. Leland Cook, pastor of the host church, presided at the morning meeting. Dr. John Bunyan Smith, pastor of First Baptist church, was chairman in the afternoon. Dr. Leland D. Jones, president of the San Diego Council of Religious Education, was dinner toastmaster and Dr. George A. Warner, president of the San Diego County Ministerial association, introduced the evening speakers.

"Again and again," Dr. Howell said in the closing address, "the Christian philosophy has faced conditions that seemed to foretell inevitable defeat and oblivion. But God cannot be defeated. In our confusion we may try to crush His loving plan for us, as individuals or as international groups, to earth, but it can't be done. We always must come back to it."

Dr. Howell said that nations gave way to hate during World War I, that this hate colored the peace, and that there is no lasting peace not based on the golden rule of doing to others as you would have them do to you.

VOICES OF DEFEAT

(From LIFE magazine, April 13, 1942)

While our country fights for its life, some Americans sow lies and hate inside our lines. They abuse free speech and spread Hitler's propaganda. But they are easy to handle once their communities are aroused.

On March 27, Attorney General Francis Biddle ordered the first prosecutions for sedition against American citizens in this war . . . .

Two publications printed in Southern California are circulated widely among pro-Nazi organizations. The Broom is a rowdy weekly published at San Diego, where there is an important navy base. Typical headlines read: DE VALERA RESENTS AMERICAN INVASION and NAVY CONSUMES TOO MUCH BOOZE ON LIBERTY. The Broom recently made the "discovery" that the V for Victory sign was really a Jewish symbol and stands for "violence, vengeance and sabotage". The other publication is a monthly called the Beacon Light, from Atascadero, near Camp Roberts, California's largest Army Camp.

Hands Are Esau's, Voice Is Jacob's

Editors, LIFE,,
330 East 22nd Street,
Chicago, Illinois.

Sirs:

Your issue of April 13, at hand, with your article VOICES OF DEFEAT on page 86 where you give me honorable mention. Many thanks! You know what Barnum said: "Never mind what they say, as long as they keep talking. When they stop talking, then it's bad, because you are a dead issue".

So thanks for "talking" about my paper. The "rowdy weekly" is such a humorous monicker to all who know me in San Diego, that it actually detracts from the value of your other descriptions of alleged "subversives" and "defeatists". When PM had recently produced a picture of me with the monicker: California Fascist; the person who called my attention to it said: "I subscribed for PM because it brought many news items I did not find elswhere; but since I see what they say about you, now I am wondering how reliable their other statements are."

In places where people do not read the Broom and do not have a personal acquaintance with its editor, the monicker "rowdy" may be taken at face value, in San Diego it backfires, because people know both the BROOM and its editor. But thanks anyway, for the publicity, from the response it created it shows me how many friends I have among the "better people" if you please, not the rowdies.

It will interest you to know that the article headlined: DE VALERA RESENTS AMERICAN INVASION was bodily copied from our daily papers, headline and all. So, evidently, our dailies here, the Copley press, are rowdies and defeatists, too. They in turn got it from a national wire service. And now I discovered another such article in my files from the I. N. S. and shall publish it immediately so my readers may realize how defeatist and rowdy the I.N.S. is.

NAVY CONSUMES TOO MUCH BOOZE ON LIBERTY is something which is giving a good deal of concern. How one could be rowdy for objecting to such a condition is one of those mysteries we leave to LIFE to solve. And how one defeats the national aim by insistnig on more sobriety in the navy is again a puzzle we don't attempt to grapple with, we simply state the fact and let the chips fall where they may.

The stunning triumph of your writer who is out to defame me, evidently he is one of the stoolies of the anti-defamation league, the same outfit who told me in San Diego to first show them my copy for their approval before publishing articles in THE BROOM in order to "insure Jewish patronage"—the stunning triumph, as I started to say, is the V for Victory discovery of being Jewish. The "discovery" was made by the New York SUN and we merely quoted their text. Thus the New York SUN becomes another rowdy sheet that is defeating the national purpose.

Being in such distinct company with the Copley press, the International News Service, the New York SUN and my own temperance habits, I certainly admire your boldness in suggesting that the citizens of San Diego take action as was done in Boston.

It is so plainly evident that the hands are Esau's but your voice is Jacob's that anybody with eyes in his head must see your old game of cheating blind people who follow your blind leadership. Why don't you come to San Diego first and get acquainted with people and locality before you write your stuff about us?

Well, I made PM, made LIFE, made the Washington POST, not let's hope I rate even greater attention. What surprises me as far as the Jewish exposures go, is that you failed to include the SATURDAY EVENING POST as an "isolationist" and anti-Semitic periodical containing those articles by Milton Mayer on the CASE AGAINST THE JEWS.

Yours truly, C. LEON de ARYAN.

JAPS, U. S. AT WAR SINCE 1854 VISIT, ROTARIANS TOLD

ESCONDIDO, April 16 (Special)—Frederick McCormick, newspaper correspondent who set up the first Associated Press office in Pekin, China, and who is now in retirement on a ranch near Rincon, addressed members of the Escondido Rotary club yesterday.

McCormick said that Japan has been at war with the United States ever since Adm. Matthew C. Perry enforced the "open door" policy in 1854, thus "insulting" the mikado. Japanese culture, he said, dictates that no one insults the mikado "without the act being wiped out in blood."

The retired newspaperman was with The Associated Press in Singapore, Tokyo and other cities of the Far East. He traveled extensively in Siberia, Malaya and other Asiatic areas, for a time serving as a free lance writer.

AMERICANS FAIL TO REALIZE PROBLEMS OF NEUTRAL EIRE

By Inez Robb

NEW YORK, March 1 (I.N.S.)—Having gone to Northern Ireland to report the arrival of the second A. E. F. in Europe, I was still in Belfast when Prime Minister Eamon De Valera protested the arrival of American troops on Irish soil.

This misunderstanding between the United States and Eire is, I believe, predicated on two things: First, the average American's complete ignorance of Eire's internal political situation, and second, the grim determination of this small nation to remain neutral and retain the naval bases on which her neutrality so largely depends.

In conversations with the political leaders of Eire, including the heads of the Irish Free State, and with citizens in every walk of life, I was told that:

NOT PRO-GERMAN

1—Eire will defend her neutrality and her bases from encroachment by any and all belligerents.

2—Eire will not yield the bases to America any more quickly than to Great Britain or Germany.

3—Eire wants no part of this war, which she views as a war of two imperialisms.

4—Eire is not pro-German. The British press itself agrees with Prime-Minister De Valera's estimate that from 80 to 90 percent of the people sympathize with the Allied causes.

6—Eire is prepared to deal sternly with internal as well as external elements threatening her neutrality. She has just passed what amounts to a drumhead court-matrial law to deal with remnants of the outlawed Irish Republican army, which has long waged its own war against Great Britain.

POLITICS CITED

The crux of the sensitive Irish situation is the partition of Eire and Ulster. For two decades, the people and the politicians have resolutely refuseed to recognize the partition of Ireland. Time and again while I was in Eire, her leaders and her plain citizens told me:

"We are forced occasionally to recognize the de facto status of partition, but never, never the de jure position."

UNANIMOUS BACKING

Indeed, it is not too much to say that De Valera's political future hinged on a strong protest against the arrival in Ulster of America soldiers. Certainly during my days in Eire, I talked to no one who was not 100 percent behind the prime minister in his protest.

"You wouldn't stand for the landing of foreign troops on American soil, would you?" Eire patriots asked me time and again.

And when I answered "No", they inevitably added:

"Then you know how we feel about your troops in Northern Ireland."

FOR WHAT ARE WE FIGHTING ?

The SATURDAY EVENING POST of April 18 has a good article under the above caption by Dr. Felix Morley. It certainly uses plain language.

" . . . American neutrality has been dissolved to make the United States an ally of Great Britain. The latter, said Mr. Churchill, 'is what I have dreamed of, aimed at and worked for, and now it has come to pass.'

"Discretion is not numbered among Prime Minister Churchill's many virtues. . . . Mr. Churchill's remark, in the same speech, that at the time of the drafting of the Atlantic Charter, he and President Roosevelt 'also settled a number of other things about the war, some of which have had an important influence upon its course'. Since the United States last August, was, in Mr. Churchill's accurate words, 'only a benevolent neutral', this was a clear intimation that President Roosevelt was then so far exceeding his prerogative as to 'settle' issues about a war which Congress was at the time some months from sanctioning."

On Jan. 27, Mr. Churchill said in the House of Commons: " . . . the probability, since the Atlantic conference at which I discussed these matters with President Roosevelt, that the United States, even if not herself attacked, would come into the war in the Far East and thus make the final victory assured allayed some of these anxieties and that expectation has not ben falsified by events."

The Japs used the advantage of attack after Churchill had announced last August that the war issues had already been "settled" between him and the President.

"de Aryan Comments"

(Thursday 9:45 pm, KGB, April 16)

"THE YANKS ARE NOT COMING"

CIO employees in the Ford factories have protested against the employment of Charles Lindbergh in the airplane industry on the grounds that he had accepted a medal from Hitler before the war; this is being held against him by the protestants as a sign of being friendly to the Nazi cause and disloyal to the U. S.—Now I wish to remind the CIO employees that it is a poor rule that does not work both ways. Charles Lindbergh may well protest against the employment of CIO workers in the Ford factories on the grounds that it was the CIO who coined the slogan "The Yanks Are Not Coming" previous to the entrance of Stalin into the war against the axis powers.

ED FLETCHER'S PATRIOTISM

Senator Ed Fletcher has written a reply to our "libelous" article of last week which he wants published on the front page. He presented such a fantastic array of figures and claims virtues we failed to note, that we are going to investigate his story and publish his letter together with our apologies for having such a slick real estate racketeer as State Senator. We are afraid Ed, who is running for re-election on his record, will have to run darn fast to keep the record from catching up with him and taking a bite out of the seat of his pants, in which case the Democratic candidate might take his seat in the State Senate.

Is Congressional Record Criminal ?

According to the Washington POST our editor has committed an awful crime, indeed must be subversive, because when some congressman sent us a batch of unaddressed, franked envelopes with the request for sending them out to our subscribers, we sent them out.

COMPULSORY VACCINATION

For the benefit of our ignorant contemporary who edits the Washington POST, we will show the difference between inciting to sedition and subordination in the armed forces and discussing the operation of a law enacted by politicians.

If we were to state that "Soldiers and Marines", for example, "should refuse to submit to vaccination," that would constitute sedition.

When we say that it is "mistake of assuming experts are in a better position to determine whether . . . draftees and enlisted soldiers who have attained physical perfection without the use of these (serum) products are entitled to be consulted about what forms of medical treatment they shall submit to", we are discussing a controversial subject within our province as an editor.

Why is it that England does not compel vaccination of its armed forces? Is it destructive of British discipline to give soldiers the choice of medical treatment any more than it is destructive of discipline in which church they want to worship?

It is quite evident that in order to smear us the POST went so far afield that it smeared itself !

THAT GUTTURAL ACCENT

Walter Duranty writing in Collier's, January 3, 1942, about Mayer Wallach, (alias Litvinoff): "I first met Livinoff in October, 1919 . . . He was then a short, thickset man in his early forties, who spoke English fluently with a guttural accent . . . He speaks German, English and French as well as Russian, but in all four his guttural accent is evident. . . . "

Letters To Gladys

Dear Sir:

Your "letters to Gladys", surely contain much exceptionally good advice and the highest possible standard of ethics, which we one and all, no matter what our station in life, our age or our sex would do well to ponder over and make our own rules of conduct. Lately, I was particularly pleased to come across the Poem, "Michael" by Robt. Service, written just when he was becoming "Class Conscious".

I am now 64 yrs of age and as far back as I can remember I have been opposed to the taking of life both human and animal. Although I am a C. O. and a Pacifist I am not an obstructionist because probably whilst so many egoes are still in the kindergarten-class stages of this evolution they will choose to learn their lessons the hard ways—thru war. Therefore, Let those who are "dead" to the teachings of the Masters "Bury their own dead", and so learn their lessons in the bitter school of experience, thru numerous Earth-lives. I still have many lessons myself to learn and am trying to make myself an apt scholar. In every country in the World the worst enemies are always at home and closer yet within ourselves.

I know that you are an exceedingly busy man so I must apologize for the length of this letter. I look for no acknowledgement.

With all good wishes,
Sincerely Yours,
E. — — Riverside.

Democrats vs. Technocrats

According to the Technocrats
The time's not far away,
When all we'll have to do to live
Is work four hours a day.

To others this may be good news;
It leaves me rather cold;
For I'm a district leader
In the Democratic fold.

For party zeal and loyalty,
I'll soon have my deserts;
A well paid, cushy sinecure.
Four hours a day? Aw nerts!

The technocratic promises
On me unheeded fall;
An office holding Democrat
Won't have to work at all!

SAN DIEGO MUST PREPARE FOR BOMBINGS

We have had it easy in California and on the Pacific Coast so far in this war. Since U. S. planes have bombed Japanese cities, from now on be prepared for a visit by Japanese planes at any time of day or night. The war is getting serious.

What is to be will be. During hysteria you can make matters much worse; but by keeping cool you can reduce the damage to a minimum through proper re-action. Fear is your worst enemy.

We all are sentenced to die and will die sooner or later; we may as well face it with a calm mind and watch the drama like good sports. When the damage is done you will discover that you are much better than you imagined. Once the worst has happened you will discover yourself. And you will find that you can stand and take it and come back for more.

Never give in to defeat and half the battle is won.

BIBLE STUDY

Instructor of Translators

REMOVING THE PAGAN LETTER J FROM THE BIBLE

"The letters" 'i' and 'j' long represented the same sound. W. D. Whitney established that 'j' constitutes .47 of one % of the sounds as they appear on the pages of English Literature." Oriental Linguistic Studies Second Series p. 274.

Local citation of Standard Dictionary has "Historically the J and j (with or without the dot) are only calligraphic variations of I and i, J and j are thus felt to be forms of the same letter and so used in medieval writing. The restriction of j to a consonantal function did not become a settled practice until long after the invention of printing . . Todd's Dictionary in 1818 still had them confused. The English "j" has the sound heard in "jet", not that heard in "yet"; which latter is its proper function and historical value."

A letter which is so untrue in its proper function seems not to have a place in a "Bible" which should stand for a Book of Truth.

The letter "j" is not found in the Hebrew nor Aramaic Scriptures nor alphabets. The introduction of this dubious letter into the proper nouns routs the radical sense of the roots which are the true source of the usage of these words. The Yod of these old alphabets is the initial letter of many proper nouns, and gets in our English thru the Latin, and there is no true rule for using the "j" in these words. For instance the Old Poem "Hiyov" the initial letter is the Aleph. Wherefore is not stated. Yet they have it "Job".

All verbs, common nouns, adjectives and adverbs containing this false and two-faced letter have in English a better synonym to express the sense. The "J" occurs in proper nouns in the "Bible" 6279 times. Almost all of our Churches have deleted the letter "J" from the name of the "Bible" by changing its name from "the King James' Version" to "The Authorized Version". We applaude this good amendment.

The letter "j" occurs in the same book in common nouns, verbs, adjectives and adverbs 1841 times. For instance in the A. VER. has twice the word "jacinth" in Rev. 9, 17. 21, 20. Where the Revised Version did some eliding of the letter "j" in the first passage, by the word "hyacinth" but in the second passage it has "jacinth" with a footnote "sapphire". Thus questioning their translation. Both raise a suspicion of correctness.

The word "jacinth" is a bad transliteration of the Hebrew word, which is also a loan word from the Persian and hence is unsuited in an English translation.

The word "jostle" is an obsolete form of "justle", used only once and rendered in the Rev. Ver. by "rush to and fro", but our English idiom would be "they shall hub", but both elide the letter "j" from the translation.

"Javelin" of the A. V. has its "j" elided by the Rev. Ver. by the word "spear": but lancet, sword, would be better rendering than the "A. V."

The word "joint" in the A. Ver. has its "j" elided by selecting a better version of it at Gen. 32, 23. where the word "joint" shows a loss of sense in the Rev. Ver. "was strained". Or the American Translation's "was dislocated". These each give the original sense better by eliding the letter "j" in starting the word.

Perhaps the removing the letter "j" from "joy", would excite one most, but the attentive reader, who pays attention to its many synonyms, would not be alarmed. These are "happy", "cheer", "glee", "gladness", "pleased". The first occurence of "joy" in the Auth. Ver. or "Bible" is 1st Sam 18, 6. where it seems to refer to an instrument of music, but the idea expressed by the Hebrew word "simcah" is best rendered by "blithesomeness" or "pleasure", its synonym.

Regard for Actual Facts

Hon. Francis J. Biddle
Attorney General, Washington,
My dear Mr. Biddle:

I understand your department is contemplating some action against C. Leon de Aryan, Editor of "The Broom", of San Diego,—possibly the cancellation of his citizenship.

I think I appreciate the delicacy of your task at this trying time, in dealing with elements suspected of being subversive, while preserving not only American traditions of technical freedom, but what is more important—our reputation for fairness, liberality, and progressivism.

Mr. de Aryan has been known to me for a dozen years, more intimately than but few others, so far as his public utterances are concerned through the Broom, since it has been my business to practically read each number as issued, as I have during most of those years run a column of economic comment therein.

I have read many articles of so-called radical character, many that may fall in the racial class, and many critical of every phase of politics, of all politics, especially the two major ones. But I can say that none of these, nor anything the Broom has originated or reprinted has even suggested anything but the most profound loyalty to, and appreciation of, the benefactions given its editor by our great democracy.

May I ask that his case be treated with literal regard for actual facts, not allowing distortion of facts and reversal of the truth to influence a decision. This I think is all Mr. de Aryan desires —that you put no limit on a full and fair investigation of his record.

To take away Mr. de Aryan's citizenship would be a grave injustice. We need more men like him.

Yours very sincerely,
CHAS. H. INGERSOLL,

Power of the Truth

FACING HIS INQUISITORS

Accompanying picture, with caption and footnote, is typical of the method used to change the truth. While they are expert money changers and get away with it, as they did even here when they devalued the gold bonds and produced crashes and depressions, the money changers still cannot change the truth, and get away with it. History testifies to that.

Our editor is grimly facing his inquisitors in a "court of inquiry", authorized by the California State Assembly, fully aware that its purpose is not to bring out the truth but to change it and facilitate a campaign of mob hysteria and publicity smear. These are times that try men's souls.

Giving testimony that is to be twisted and misrepresented, misquoted and perverted, our editor proceeds, nevertheless, with the grim business, never hesitating, and to the point. The roosters get their chance to crow, but not over the fact that he betrayed the Christ; on the contrary!

And you can notice the procedure: The venal press, monthly, weekly and daily, all over the nation and Canada, has been publishing pictures, captions and footnotes of the above. And what is the truth in the case?

We admitted having attended Bund meetings in San Diego and Los Angeles as a reporter for the BROOM. We admitted that we made an investigation of the Bund, its activities, and in the course thereof became acquainted with the leaders of the organization. This fact the truth changers have twisted into an "admitted friendship" with bund leaders; "sympathy" with the Nazi cause is implied. As a rugged individualist our ideology does not differentiate between Americanism and Individualism. To us these are synonyma. But the collectivists hate us and attempt to spread hate by perversion of actual occurrences and false reports. How far can they succeed ? ! !

The unthinking might follow them, but the thinking public realizes that an Individualist cannot possibly be a Nazi or a Communist. Every true American is faced with the alternative of forsaking his God and his oath or being branded by the money changers as "subversive". Thank God there still are men in America who have faith and keep faith!

TRUTH NEVER CHANGES

While humanity is slowly unfolding and growing from animalism and infantility to intelligence and divinity, the human mind is being confused, purposedly. Naturally, this is a process that must take place. It is the schooling of the pupils who must learn to think for themselves and differentiate properly.

But the true nature of man is divine. Divinity spells stability in the midst of change. Divinity is eternal in the midst of time, time passes but eternity is still: NOW. Solve the puzzle of NOW and you solved the puzzle of eternity. Eternity and NOW are one and the same. There is no time, there is only NOW; and Now is eternal.

I AM NOW !

As long as the human mind is not in love with the Truth, it wanders through the labyrinths of relativity. Unless the mind anchors itself to principle, it gets lost and imagines that nothing is true and all is relative. Having no standard by which to measure, the mind becomes a plaything, tossed upon the waves of opinion. This state of mind the truth changers exploit. They apply the same methods and tactics they use in their money system.

Money is a token of value based in faith. It is a promise to pay in a certain ratio and substance. When the backer of the promise changes his word and eliminates the backing of the promisory note, or coin, the economic structure topples and in the confusion the common people lose their possessions which are transfered in title to the slick money changers.

Were the universe based in the word of money changers, indeed, the universe would topple also. But thank God the universe is based in GOD and God keeps His promises. Therefore humanity has a chance of survival and of breaking the shackles the money changers have foisted upon us.

You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free!

"I am not bound to win, but I am bound to be true. I am not bound to succeed, but I am bound to live up to what light I have. I must stand with anybody that stands right, stand with him while he is right, and part with him when he goes wrong.

—Abraham Lincoln.

WHAT IS ANTI-SEMITISM ?

It is quite remarkable that those who complain about being persecuted for their "democratic" ways of individual independence, in thought, word and action, insist that others stop thinking for themselves but obey their dictates about doing business. And when one refusees to knuckle down to their racket, he is, then, branded an anti-Semite.

It is also very remarkable that while Jesus was excommunicated and cursed by the Sanhredin, and just to present an additional example, Baruch Spinoza was equally cursed and excommunicated in Amsterdam, nevertheless, today, when it appears convenient, and only where it appears advantageous, it is pointed out to us with great ado, that both, Jesus and Spinoza were Jews. They fail to inform you that they were outcasts, rather than Jews, according to Talmudic, coded law.

Now every anti-Semite is supposed to be consumed by hatred. If that is the definition of anti-Semitism, our editor certainly does not qualify. Our business is the exact opposite. We hate nobody. We strive to be fair even to our worst enemies. We might in a spurt of anger do something for which we later are sorry, but that is something else again and those who provoked us are equally guilty.

What the money changers object to about us is our stability. We do not change like a weathervane. We point in the same direction morning, noon and night, following the same eternal verities. Of course, the New Deal objects to us because our oath to uphold the constitution is just the same obligation today as it was in the horse and buggy days: hence they charge us conveniently with anti-Semitism for objecting to the ever-changing and promise breaking tribe, especially in public life.

In one thing, though, you may trust them not to change: Unreliability.

ARTICLE ON JEWS RESULTS IN PROTESTS

NEW YORK,—The Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, which has been conducting a boycott of Nazi goods and services since 1933, has condemned the publishers of the Saturday Evening Post for publication of an article entitled "The Case Against the Jew."

"The article might more aptly have been called 'The Case for the Nazi', or 'The Case Against America'," according to Prof. James H. Sheldon, chairman of the League's board of directors.

Facing Facts

A favorite pastime of certain cartoonists and columnists has been to portray isolationists as ostriches, sticking their necks in the sand, while ignoring the approaching storm or, as turtles, perchance, seeking refuge within their shells while bombs were being dropped.

Nothing could be further from the truth than such distorted allegations. As a matter of actual record, Charles Lindbergh again and again warned this nation that we should make the American continent impregnable, with air and naval armadas so powerful, we could defy the world. He repeatedly reminded us that we were not prepared for war.

It seems a safe assumption that if Lindbergh's advice had been heeded Japan would hardly have dared to have attacked us at Pearl Harbor, or elsewhere.

WORTHFUL LIFE

The love of truth and the capacity to understand it, which creates science; the love of beauty and the power to produce it which makes our literature, painting, architecture and music; the love of goodness from which have come radiant characters and creators of social righteousness; the love of people, by which we are woven into a fabric of Families, Friendships and Societies—these spiritual values make life worthful.—Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick.

Isaac to the Rescue !

Mr. L. C. de Aryan.
My dear Sir:

I am the San Diego newsboy whom you give a copy of the Broom every week. I took a trip east and while in Washington I noticed an article about you in the Washington Post. Think it might interest you. I am sending you a copy of the article.

I expect to be back in San Diego in about ten days.

With best wishes to you I am
Yours truly,
ISAAC ZINN.
Boston, Mass.

Editor's Note: Zinn is a Jewish boy who with a loud voice announces his wares on San Diego's street corners. He absolutely ignores the boycott imposed by certain Jewish defamation elements who are behind the persecution of THE BROOM's editor and exchanges copies of the papers he sells with copies of THE BROOM. When he was in Hawaii he wrote us a few times and now being in Boston, he figured on doing us a service.

THE BROOM'S EDITOR RAISES DUST OF LIES

(Editor's note—Scores of verminous little sheets, each with a few thousand readers, are gnawing away at the faith and unity of our people, whispering defeat and clamoring about "freedom of the press". Their common policy —"made in Germany"—is to turn Americans against one another, and to split America from the United Nations. This is the fourth article of a series about these papers.)

By Dillard Stokes

"Who is behind this plot?" is the retort of C. Leon de Aryan to a current investigation directed toward canceling his American citizenship.

De Aryan is a tall, lean man, with deep lines in his face, a grim slit of a mouth and intense, deep-set eyes. He owns and edits The Broom in San Diego, Calif.

The franked speeches of isolationist Congressmen went out postage free from San Diego to The Broom's mailing list.

Like others of the vermin press, The Broom has been patriotic, since December 7. Like the others, The Broom has discovered great value in the Bill of Rights, too.

"The meetings held by Robert Noble have been declared fully within the law by none else than Attorney General Biddle," declared The Broom with satisfaction after Biddle blocked prosecution of Noble for sedition. (Noble went on holding meetings and is now being prosecuted for sedition on the Attorney General's direct order.)

For the Japanese, The Broom suggests an excuse, saying:

"The Emperior is sacred and inviolable"— is Article 3 of the Japanese constitution; which explains why the Japs started shooting when President Roosevelt approached the Emperor directly over the heads of his government negotiators.

Under the heading, "England's Cleanup in Abyssinia", The Broom declared that the British government bought "all Italian properties in Abyssinia" for ten million dollars. This deal was made possible, said The Broom, "out of lend-lease largess".

To the cause of good discipline in the Army, The Broom contributes an article about " the mistake of assuming experts are in a better position to determine whether a long list of laboratory products for the alleged prevention of disease are necessary or whether draftees and enlisted soldiers who have attained physical perfection without the use of these products are entitled to be consulted about what forms of medical treatment they shall submit to."

From the Galilean, suspended magazine issued by William Dudley Pelley—Silver Shirter jailed on a sedition charge—The Broom reprinted an article celebrating Pelley's release on bail pending appeal of a fraud sentence.

Editor de Aryan explained his attendance at Bund meetings by saying he went as a reporter. He explained his frequent anti-Jewish editorials as resentment over Jewish action against him.

When confronted by the citizenship investigation, de Aryan obtained, and printed, letters attesting his sincerity from many officials in his community. Almost all said they disapproved his views, which they called "extreme" and "fanatical".

Once a gang boss in construction work in Mesopotamia and India, De Aryan says he was "dishonorably discharged from the United States Army", but hints that this was not to his discredit.

Defamation Committee At Work

Editor, the Washington Post
Washington, D. C.
Sir:

Accept my thanks for the splendid way in which Dillard Stokes succeeded to spell my name in the article that appeared in your issue of April 11. He made only one lapse in the last mention when he spelled it with a capital D. Otherwise he did better than even our reporters do in proper spelling here in San Diego's Copley papers. I have trained my own printer to spell it with a small d even at the beginning of a sentence as for example: de Aryan is a tall, lean man . . . .

I wondered how long I'll have to keep on working to gain national and finally international attention, but thanks to PM, LIFE and yourselves, I am making the grade now. The pattern though is the same in all. The hands that write are Esau's but the voice is Jacob's, your master's voice, everywhere in the world, evidently.

It is marvelous how well you captioned Stokes' opus! The Broom's Editor always goes after lies and when he pitches in the dust flies and the lies are revealed, even in your case. .

People in San Diego are having a good laugh reading your claim that our policy is "made in Germany". You see, at the time Henry Ford accepted that medal from Hitler, we remarked that all his millions did him no good since he did not have the courage to refuse the medal. Even though we stood with Ford during the NRA.

As to our "gnawing away at the faith and unity of our people" it seems peculiar that speaking the truth should give you such a notion. Evidently you are strangers to the truth and don't appreciate the value of the "freedom of the press", so you would like to see the U. S. postal department take steps to cancel our second class mailing privilege. Why don't you place your faith in the people to unite on the truth and keep their faith with each other, the constitution, the bill of rights and defense of their heritage against all comers?!

While you and your ilk pretend to keep your oath to the constitution sacred, in practice you would like to impose dictatorship upon our very conscience and persecute us because before Pearl Harbor, we remembered our experiences while employed as a surveyor in British East India, how the British had been treating their subjects. Evidently the Indians remember it well enough even after Pearl Harbor. Peculiar, is it not?! So does de Valera and the Irish . . . .

Your idea about editorial information seems very peculiar. One is to keep his readers in ignorance and not let them understand the peculiar psychology which is the heritage of the Japanese concerning the sacredness of their emperor. Since the incident took place, we believe the people of the U. S. are entitled to understand what brought the sudden explosion about. Had they understood previously, it might never have happened in that fashion, but they would have been prepared first before provoking it.

This idea of keeping the truth away from the people has worked havoc in more ways than one. When Gen. Billy Mitchell presented the truth about air power, Douglas MacArthur sat on the court martial that punished him for revealing the truth to the public, as the Broom's editor is doing today. And retribution has come to MacArthur and the armed forces of these U. S. for punishing their best advisor who had more vision than the brass hats. Perhaps, you will admit today that army court martials in specific instances may render verdicts which do not dishonor their victim, but rather enhance his worth, historically.

Herbert Hoover was a great "philanthropist who fed the Belgians" but this great "philanthropist" ordered MacArthur to chase the bonus veterans out of the national capital and burn their measly shacks. History proves today that this action elected Roosevelt and saddled us with the New Deal. Had Hoover really loved his own people as he loved foreigners, there would never have been a chance for Roosevelt's three terms. Now Hoover is whining because he cannot feed the Belgians again since Britain forbids it and the New Deal obeys. Some more milk of human kindness!

As to intimations of sedition, it appears strange that the same pattern of persecution has been followed throughout history against expounders of Christianity. When the war-clamoring Sanhredin could not stampede the mob into action against Rome and a 33 year popular idol refused to lead the mob into war, HE was charged with sedition and crucified. So sedition is to be the charge to deprive us of our rights; but my dear Sir, I much prefer the company of the Master to your's. In fact I will be proud of it and repeat once more that it will not be to our discredit, historically. It's the same crowd throughout the ages, the son's of darkness who holler "democracy".

The most remarkable part of your article is though the uniformity of the procedure with that exhibited by the Tenney un-American investigation committee, PM, LIFE and the tactics of the anti-Defamation committee which operates internationally to defame Christian doctrines and exponents since time immemorial. Even here in San Diego the Copley press fell in with the parade imagining the time was ripe to smear us, but the sudden re-action of the best elements in our city who came to the defense of that tall, lean man, with deep lines in his face, a grim slit of a mouth and intense, deep-set eyes, was so startling the Copley press turned about face and published their testimonials, changing the tune..

It is most remarkable that here is an example where the prophet is being honored in his own home town; verily God moves in mysterious ways His wonders to perform when one obeys His injunction "even greater things than these ye shall do", for while the Master was not recognized in His home town, the Editor of the Broom seems to be,—or is it the Hosiannah of the Sunday before the crucifixion? Whichever it be, we have trained for our part in the drama for 55 years and shall not fail.

Thanks for your kind attention and publicity.

Sincerely, C. LEON de ARYAN.

Good WORD — Good DEED

Thoughts on Ormuzd and Ahriman

By H. B. Blavatsky

During our life cycle, the god Yazatas, the 99,999 Fravashi (or Ferouers) and even the "Holy Seven", the Ameshaspends themselves,* are almost powerless against the Host of wicked Devs —the symbols of cosmic opposing powers and of human passions and sins.† Fiends of evil their presence radiates and fills the world with moral and physical ills: with disease, poverty, envy and pride, with despair, drunkenness, treachery, injustice, and cruelty, with anger and bloody-handed murder. Under the advice of Ahriman, man from the first made his fellow-man to weep and suffer. This state of things will cease only on the day when Ahura Mazda, the seven-fold deity, assumes his seventh name‡ or aspect. Then, will he send his "Holy Word" Mathra-Spenta (or the "soul of Ahura") to incarnate in Saoshyant (Sosiosh), and the latter will conquer Angra Mainyu. Sosiosh is the prototype of "the faithful and the true" of the Revelation, and the same as Vishnu in the Kalki-avatar. Both are expected to appear as the Saviour of the World, seated on a white horse and followed by a host of spirits or genii, mounted likewise on milk-white steeds.¶ And then, men will arise from the dead and immortality come.§

Now the latter is of course purely allegorical. It stands in the occult sense, that materialism and sin being called death, the materialist, or the unbeliever, is "a dead man"—spiritually. Occultism has never regarded the physical personality as the man; nor has Paul, if his Epistle to the Romans (vi-vii) is correctly understood. Thus mankind, arrived "at the appointed time" (the end of our present Round), at the end of the cycle of gross material flesh, will, with certain bodily changes, have come to a clearer spiritual perception of the truth. Redemption from flesh means a proportionate redemption from sin. Many are those who seeing will believe, and, in consequence, rise "from the dead". By the middle of the Seventh Race, says an occult prophecy, the struggle of the two conflicting Powers (Buddhi and Kama Manas) will have almost died out. Everything that is irredeemably sinful and wicked, cruel and destructive, will have been eliminated, and that which is found to survive will be swept away from being, owing, so to speak, to a Karmic tidal-wave in the shape of scavenger-plagues, geological convulsions and other means of destruction. The Fifth Round will bring forth a higher kind of Humanity, and, as intelligent Nature always proceeds gradually, the last Race of this Round must necessarily develop the needed materials thereof. Meanwhile we are still in the Fifth Race of the Fourth Round only, and in the Kali-yuga, into the bargain. The deadly strife between spirit and matter, between Light and Darkness and Evil, began on our globe with the first appearance of contrasts and opposites in vegetable and animal nature, and continued more fiercely than ever after man had become the selfish and personal being he now is. Nor is there any chance of its coming to an end before falsehood is replaced by truth, selfishness by altruism, and supreme justice reigns in the heart of man. Till then, the noisy battle will rage unabated. It is selfishness, especially; the love of Self above all things in heaven and earth, helped by human vanity, which is the begetter of the seven mortal sins. No; Ashmogh, the cruel "biped serpent", is not so easily reduced. Before the poor creature now in the clutches of Darkness is liberated throught Light, it has to know itself. Man, following the Delphic injunction, has to become acquainted with, and gain the mastery over, every nook and corner of his heterogeneous nature, before he can learn to discriminate between HIMSELF and his personality. To accomplish this difficult task, two conditions are absolutely requisite: one must have thoroughly realized in practice the noble Zoroastrian precept: "Good thoughts, good words, good deeds", and must have impressed them indelibly on his soul and heart, not merely as a lip-utterance and form-observance. Above all, one has to crush personal vanity beyond resurrection.

*The gods of light, the "immortal seven", of whom Ahura Mazda is the seventh. They are deified abstractions.

†Or devils.

‡In verse 16th of the Yast xix we read: "I invoke the glory of the Ameshaspends, who, all seven, have one and the same thinking, one and the same speaking, one and the same doing, one and the same lord, Ahura Mazda". As an occult teaching says: During the seven periods (Races) the chief ruling Light is given a new name: i. e. one of the seven hidden names, the initials of which compose the mystery name of the Septenary Host, viewed as one.

¶Nork ii. 176. Compare Rev. xiv., 11-14, "I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat upon him. . . . and the armies followed upon white horses".

democracy

By Charles H. Ingersoll
(Of Dollar Watch Fame)

NEW YORK.— I'm wondering what trouble Eleanor will get into next; or whom else she will push in. Now she takes a middle-age unemployed woman as a text and example of something we must not let this war be the end of; and then she berates an educational organization which does not teach a better system of economics, which would give every child a good start, and which would insure everyone, up to the age where pensions would start, adequate employment.

Ingersoll

Provided the First Lady is prepared to follow such questions as these to the point of getting the natural, the logical, or the scientific answers, she will get herself and others into enough trouble to do an awful lot of good.

War production displacing peace production IN-A-HURRY is just one bump after another, in spite of a good coordinator and the good disposition of industry.

Now Mr. Guthrie, of Textiles, walks out with two helpers, and takes two columns to tell that it is the fault of the big manufacturers (of whom he is one) and then that it's not their fault at all.

Is the trouble with all critics the failure of imagination to grasp the size and nature of this task? The administration has a war to put over. It must be done with two elements: static and dynamic: inert and volatile: material and human. The administration has drafted the human element for both action at the front and at home. No trouble there at all. And now it is pounding at the steel, cement and genius inertia. This job, from the standpoint of the sciences entailed in wealth production, is an impossibility. Science does not hurry, nor adapt itself to human idiosyncracies. But there are a million food scientists on this job, and they will deliver if the politicians (of 57 varieties) will let them. No one yet has visualized the job as an enlarged Ford factory, and adhered to that concept.

A joint industrials committee at Albany proposes an $8,000,000 commission to prepare for the state's share of a possible post-war volume of 30,000,000 unemployed.

Like others considering this persistent problem, this committee's ideas seem rather to be defensive than constructive. Noting that well toward 8000 industrial and business concerns came to and departed from the state last year, resulting in an increase of about 15,000 in unemployment, some conclusion of remedial nature for this destructive turnover might be expected to at least start a six-man commission.

Must this survey not go back to the original cause of our mass disemployment, and build a more reliable prosperity? Is there sense in such planning without correcting causes? Do we not know that employment must depend on market for output? That the massed millions of buyers have been let down, probably at least half, in buying power? Does this not sufficiently account for the unemployed millions and show that there is no way to restore this demand but to take some 23 billion dollars of taxes (reported by F.D.R. before as taxes)—really sales taxes—off these buyers, and put them on a 200 billion dollars of untaxed basic monopoly—of natural resources?

"YOUTH" is a state of mind—not a time in life.

By George Starr White, M. D.

MORE RACKETEERING

Dear Frend de Aryan:

The inclosed clipping from a morning's paper gives a report from Chicago—The American Medical Trust—that will interest U and all those who THINK.

Dr. Geo. Starr White

The Trust doctors now have found an excuse for digging into the insides of the well—helthy—ones and trying to find a misterius microbe that may cause ANY kind of sickness, or any made-up "epidemic". Not only this, they are trying to put "teeth" into their findings and graft that all into a Federal Law, so they may insult and outrage any whomsoever they wish.

I have in all my books shown that ALL manner of bacteria are about us and we cannot avoid them any more than we can avoid air and live.

Pollen comes off from all manner of vegetabl growths and we inhale same if near the place from which they come. There may be one out of thousands that will get an eruption, or get "pollen fever" from these floating "bacteria". If every person were scraped and cut into and examined under the microscope, many of these harmless bacteria could be found.

Now, when a person is sick from ANY cause whatsoever, good, bad and indifferent bacteria, or microbes, can be found. The same is true of a perfectly well person.

From this little discussion, it can be seen that a victim of any political, or medical-trust doctor, can be "sold out" to any special microbe or bacteria, according to what the gang wants to "find".

Beware of political or Medical Trust Doctors!

Youthfully yours,
GEO. STARR WHITE.

HEALTHY BOY FOUND CARRIER OF 'POLIO' VIRUS

CHICAGO,— Discovery that healthy children can be carriers of infantile paralysis, while suffering no ill effects themselves, was claimed in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

The report was submitted by Dr. Edward A. Piszdek, Cook County health officer, in connection with an infantile paralysis outbreak last summer at La Grange and Western Springs, Ill.

Transmitted To Two

Investigation showed, the article said, that the disease was spread by a healthy La Grange boy who transmitted it to two other children. This boy visited his father at Berwyn, Ill., five miles distant, several times, and his father was stricken and died.

The boy was examined, and virus of the disease was obtained from him. However, the report said, the boy himself suffered no ill effects. The article cited other cases.

False Charge Of Race Hatred

WASHINGTON,— The supreme court upheld a lower court decision declaring that under New York state law a false accusation of racial intolerance against a public official is libelous "per se"—that is, without any necessity or proving specific damages.

The decision was rendered last July by the federal circuit court of appeals in New York in connection with a libel suit brought by Rep. Sweeney (D-O) against the Schenectady (N-Y) Union Star because of a published statement that he opposed the apointment of a man to a judgeship because the man was a Jew.

THE JEWISH FLAG

Senator Johnson, Democrat of Colorado, in a senate speech Thursday, urged Great Britain to create a Jewish army in the Suez battle era. "One hundred thousand Jews in Palestine are demanding the opportunity and the right to fight on the side of the defenders of Suez," Johnson urged. And may we add that wealthy Jews in America would not object to financing the expedition, more than likely, just to "get back" at Hitler and the Nazi. But some wag is bound to bring up the old gag about the Jewish flag.

Political Stir

(Carlsbad, California, Journal)

There has been quite a political stir in San Diego City this week due to the fact that certain influential citizens holding business as well as political positions have seen fit to say to the Attorney General of the United States that C. Leon de Aryan, publisher of a San Diego weekly, is not the type of person that should have his citizenship cancelled and be thereafter deported.

Of course, as a newspaper man we appreciate the fact that we must have a free press as well as free speech in this country. After all, isn't that one of the things we are fighting this war about?

Personally, we believe that some of Mr. de Aryan's ideas are wrong—we condemn the attacks that he has made upon certain religious groups, including the Catholics and the Jews, but isn't that what free speech means—that a man can either criticize or praise the acts, thoughts and beliefes of his fellow citizens as long as does not engage in criminal libel?

The acts of some of the citizens of San Diego in saying that they believe that de Aryan was something of a fanatic, although sincere in his beliefs, when de Aryan has been critical of those individuals, in our opinion reflects credit to those who have the courage to speak courageously in favor of our American principles of free speech and free press in spite of pressure from minority groups.

To believe in men is the first step toward helping them.

Son—Pop, what is college bred?

Pop—My boy, they make college bred from the flour of youth and the dough of old age!

Entering a bar, an elderly man ordered a whisky and soda, and was about to drink it when he looked up and noticed a painter at work upon the walls, whereupon he left hastily without touching his drink. The painter climbed down his ladder and lifted the customer's glass.

"Hi" said the barman, "you can't do that. That chap will be back in a minute, I expect."

"No, 'e won't," said the painter. "You see, he's the president of our local temperance society, and I'm the secretary."

Little Betty, returning from school one afternoon, said: "Johnny Wilson's examination papers were so good that teacher keeps them on her desk to show visitors."

Asked about her own, she had to confess that they weren't good.

"But why aren't yours as good as Johnny's?" her mother asked. "You have the same opportunities."

"I know, mother," said Betty, "but Johnny Wilson comes from a very bright family."

"I thought you had thrown Bill over?"

"Yes, I did," she answered; "but you know how a girl throws."

Common honesty should be more common.
